Govt. however, considered that such large sums were not reqd. for permanent advances and reduced the ~~sum~~ ^{amount} to Rs 50/- for each of the libraries. At the time the Comptroller was not ~~authorized~~ ^{asked} to instruct the treasuries concerned to disburse money on presentation of Abs. Cont. Bills by the Secretaries: hence the present ref.

It is a point for consideration as to what extent the Secretaries of the two libraries, and the Secy. or the Chairman of the Edu. Com. of the Ec. Conf. ^{each} should have power to operate upon the funds provided for the Liby. expenditure. In the case of orders placed with approved firms for books or furniture, there should be no objection to obtain the ~~order~~ ^{sanction} of Govt. each time before ~~payment~~ ^{of bills are paid}. The Secy's letter is not definite about the limit of bills. he can operate each time upon the funds.

(2) As regards the second part of the letter under disposal re the Chairman's power to subscribe for journals &c. and incur charges on account of furniture, B.I. has to be consulted.
